

Following JEAN-BAPTISTE LAGACÉ's footsteps in Montreal from the 1890s to 1944

Archives de l'École des beaux-arts de Montréal, bibliothèque des arts, UQAM

To celebrate the 100th anniversary of Art History in Canada,

Olga Hazan invites you to follow the footsteps of Jean-Baptiste Lagacé, holder of the first Chair in Art History in Montreal and Canada, from 1904 to 1944.

The exhibition, which retraces Lagacé's major achievements as an artist and art historian, will be presented from August 18 to September 12

as part of the 2004 Congress of the Comité International d'Histoire de l'Art,

at the Centre d'exposition de l'Université de Montréal.

The official opening will be held at 5 p.m. on Sunday, August 22, 2004.

We look forward to seeing you there!
